If your friend writes on your paper, should you YELL at your friend or KINDLY ask your friend not to do that again? (Kindly ask your friend not to do that again)

Yes! You can do the right thing when you don't yell at your friend, but use kind words and a kind voice.

If you will do the right thing, show me two thumbs up. (Kids will show two thumbs up)

Everyone circle one PENCIL on the table. (Kids will circle one PENCIL.)

If your teacher asks you stop drawing on the board but you keep drawing, did you do the right thing? (No)

Should you ask for your teacher to forgive you for not doing the right thing? (Yes)

Let me hear you say, "Please forgive me." (Kids will say, "Please forgive me.")

Everyone circle the CHALK on the board. (Kids will circle the CHALK.)

If you want to color with the BLUE crayon, but your friend is coloring with it, should you JERK it out of his hand or WAIT for your turn? (Wait for your turn)

When you wait with a happy heart, you are doing the right thing!

Let me hear you say this after me:
(Pause to allow kids to repeat)

I Will Do (thumbs to chest)
The Right Thing (two thumbs up)

Everyone circle the cup of CRAYONS on the table. (Kids will circle cup of crayons.)

While you are drawing a picture, you accidentally tear your paper. Should you CRY and throw it away or should you ASK your teacher for another paper? (Ask your teacher for another paper)

That's right! All of us make mistakes. Instead of getting upset, you can try again!

If you will do the right thing when you make a mistake, pat your legs.
(Kids will pat legs)

Everyone circle one PAPER on the table. (Kids will circle one PAPER.)
